WHAT SHOULD I DO?

Plan ahead! Now is the right time to start thinking about how you'll get around during the Games. Here are some suggestions:

Residents and Commuters

- Take transit instead of driving.
- Walk or cycle for short distance trips.
- When possible, schedule travel to avoid Games-related traffic. Carpool to take advantage of temporary HOV lanes. Use the Smart Commute Tool to match trips (carpool and more).

Businesses

- Adjust delivery schedules outside of busiest times when possible to avoid delays.
- Develop a Games Travel Plan that encourages your staff to rethink the way they travel, e.g. carpooling.
- Notify your staff, customers and visitors about changes that may affect them.
- Visit ontario.ca/games2015 to download a business guide and sign up for email updates to get the latest information.
- Sign up for Smart Commute's special Games Service that will help your business plan ahead.
- Learn more about TORONTO 2015 sponsorship opportunities.
- Register your business for supplier opportunities with the Games.

Spectators

- Aside from limited, pre-booked accessible parking, there will be no parking at downtown venues.
- Public transit is the best option for getting to and from events, and it's included with your ticket. Shuttles will operate from St. George Station to Pan Am Fields (PAF) and the Ryerson Athletic Centre (RYA).
- If you are close enough, try walking or cycling to your event. Bicycle parking will be available and the routes leading up venues will be pedestrian friendly.
- Visit toronto2015.org to begin planning your travel to the Games and for more information about the events taking place in downtown Toronto.
